

When your car needs maintenance or repairs, you don't want to waste time waiting on parts that need to be shipped. With VDP direct shipping, you can have your car parts delivered right to your front door the very next day. It's easy for you to get the parts you need to keep your car running at peak performance. There's no running around town, wasting time and gas to find the parts that fit your make and model.

How Next Day Delivery Works

First, find your store to know if next day delivery is available in your market. You'll want to check the local deadline for shopping so you know when to submit your order by. Shop for the products you want. Look for the "next day" option to know that those auto parts are eligible for next-day delivery. Some chemicals and larger items can't be delivered by the next day. Spend over $35 and shipping is free. Sit back and relax until the next day when your order shows up at your door.

The Convenience of Quick Delivery

Delivery to your door offers many benefits. You can shop at your convenience without putting more wear and tear on your car. You don't have to deal with the hot temperatures of summer or bad weather in the winter. Not only do you avoid dealing with traffic, but you also reduce the number of cars on the road by shopping from home. You can track your order to know where it is and when it will show up at your house, so you can be ready to get your maintenance taken care of.
